The increase may be in one or several issues by not more than a nominal amount of DKK 70 m (7 million shares of a face value of DKK 10). The increase may be effected through cash payment or through acquisition of existing businesses or specific assets. The increase must in every case be effected not below the market price. The increase cannot be effected through part payment. The authorisation will be effective until 1 March 2026.

In case of issue and transfer, the new shares are registered in the name of the holder with VP Securities and in the Bank's register of shareholders. The new shares are negotiable instruments, and there are no restrictions in their negotiability except for the provisions laid down in Art. 3 of the Articles of Association. Shareholders shall be under no obligation to have their shares redeemed in full or in part.

(3):

As specified by the Supervisory Board in respect of time and terms and conditions, the share capital can be increased through the subscription of new shares with preferential subscription rights for existing shareholders. The increase may be in one or several issues by not more than a nominal amount of DKK 140 m (14 million shares of a face value of DKK 10). Shareholders shall be under no obligation to have their shares redeemed in full or in part.

(4):

Where new share capital is issued in accordance with Art. 4, the Supervisory Board shall determine the terms and conditions for the subscription including the time, subscription ratio, subscription price and time for right of dividend for new shares. (5):

When exercising the authorisation set out in Art. 4(2) and (3), and Art. 5(1) and (2), the Supervisory Board may increase the company's share capital by not more than a nominal amount of DKK 200 m (20 million shares of a face value of DKK 10).

Art. 5 – Authority, convertible loans

(1):

The Bank may, following resolution by the Supervisory Board, during the period specified in Art. 4(2) and (3), on one or more occasions raise loans against bonds or other instruments of debt which bonds or instruments of debt shall entitle the lender to convert his claim into shares (convertible loans). Convertible loans can be raised with a maximum conversion right to a number of shares, corresponding to the amount specified in Art. 4(5) calculated in relation to the conversion price fixed on the raising of such loans. The Bank's shareholders shall have a preferential subscription right to convertible loans. Where the Supervisory Board decides to raise convertible loans, the authorisation to increase the share capital, cf. Art. 4(2)-(3), shall be considered to be utilised by an amount corresponding to the maximum conversion right. The term allowed for conversion may be fixed at a period exceeding five years after the raising of the convertible loan. For shares which shall be issued on the basis of the convertible loans mentioned in this provision, the Supervisory Board shall decide – with due regard to the time of subscription or utilisation of the conversion right – the time from when such new shares shall carry a right to receive dividend and other terms and conditions of the share issue. Shares issued on the basis of the convertible loans mentioned in this provision cannot be effected through part payment. To these shares the same rules as apply to the existing shares in respect of rights and duties, redeemability and transferability shall apply.

(2):

The Bank may, following resolution by the Supervisory Board, during the period specified in Art. 4(2) and (3), on one or more occasions raise loans against bonds or other instruments of debt which bonds or instruments of debt shall entitle the lender to convert his claim into shares (convertible loans). Convertible loans can be raised with a maximum conversion right to a number of shares, corresponding to the amount specified in Art. 4(5) calculated in relation to the conversion price fixed on the raising of such loans. The Bank's shareholders shall not have a preferential subscription right to convertible loans which are offered at a subscription price and a conversion price to the effect that the right of conversion corresponds to the market price of the shares at the time the resolution was passed by the Supervisory Board. The convertible bonds or other instruments of debt may be issued as payment upon the Bank's acquisition of existing businesses or specific assets corresponding to the value of the convertible bonds or other instruments of debt. Where the Supervisory Board decides to raise convertible loans, the authorisation to increase the share capital, cf. Art. 4(2)-(3), shall be considered to be utilised by an amount corresponding to the maximum conversion right. The term allowed for conversion may be fixed at a period exceeding five years after the raising of the convertible loan. For shares which shall be issued on the basis of the convertible loans mentioned in this provision, the Supervisory Board shall decide – with due regard to the time of subscription or utilisation of the conversion right – the time from when such new shares shall carry a right to receive dividend and other terms and conditions of the share issue. Shares issued on the basis of the convertible loans mentioned in this provision cannot be effected through part payment. To these shares the same rules as apply to the existing shares in respect of rights and duties, redeemability and transferability shall apply.

(3):

When exercising the authorisation set out in Art. 5(1) and (2), the Supervisory Board may raise convertible loans with a maximum conversion right to a number of shares, corresponding to the amount specified in Art. 4(5) calculated in relation to the conversion price fixed on the raising of such loans.

(4):

When exercising the authorisation set out in Art. 4(2) and (3), and Art. 5(1) and (2), the Supervisory Board may increase the company's share capital by not more than a nominal amount of DKK 200 m (20 million shares of a face value of DKK 10).

(2):

Extraordinary General Meetings shall be convened and held according to the same rules as apply to Annual General Meetings unless otherwise provided by legislation or by the Articles of Association.

Art. 10 - General Meetings, procedures and admission

(1):

General Meetings shall be presided over by a chairman of the meeting appointed by the Supervisory Board.

The chairman of the meeting shall determine all questions concerning the manner in which business shall be transacted and concerning voting procedures and results.

(2):

Any shareholder who has acquired an admission card not later than three days prior to the General Meeting shall be entitled to attend the General Meeting.

Where a shareholder wishes to be represented by a proxy, he shall within the three-day limit have notified the Bank that he so wishes or have acquired an admission card. The instrument appointing the proxy and which shall be produced, shall be in writing or in electronic form and duly dated. Proxy can be granted for an unlimited period. However, members of the Supervisory Board can only act as proxies for a specific General Meeting with an agenda that is known beforehand. (3):

Except in respect of adoption of resolutions concerning amendments to the Articles of Association or the winding-up of the Bank, cf. Arts. 12 and 13 below, General Meetings shall form a quorum irrespective of the proportion of the share capital represented at the General Meeting.

(4):

Unless otherwise provided by legislation or by the Articles of Association, resolutions shall be adopted by a simple majority of votes cast. Votes shall be in writing when requested by one shareholder.

Art. 12 - Amendments to the Articles of Association

Motions to amend the Articles of Association can only be adopted when not less 90% of the voting share capital is represented at the General Meeting and the motion is adopted by $\frac{3}{4}$ of the votes cast at the General Meeting as well as by $\frac{3}{4}$ of the voting share capital represented at the General Meeting.

(2):

Where less than 90% of the voting share capital is represented at the General Meeting, but the motion obtained both $\frac{3}{4}$ of the votes cast and $\frac{3}{4}$ of the voting capital represented at the meeting, and provided the motion was proposed by the Shareholders' Representatives and/or the Supervisory Board of Jyske Bank, the motion can be adopted at an Extraordinary General Meeting by the said qualified majority irrespective of the proportion of the share capital represented. Such an Extraordinary General Meeting shall be convened at the usual notice within 14 days after the first General Meeting.

(3):

Where Danish financial business and company legislation allows that resolutions to increase the share capital or to grant authority to the Supervisory Board to effect such increases are adopted by a simple or qualified majority of votes cast, irrespective of the proportion of the total or represented capital voting in favour, such resolutions and consequent amendments to Arts. 2 and 4 above shall from the commencement of such legislation be adoptable by the smallest possible majority allowed by current legislation at the time of adopting the resolution.
